

GOOD FAITH PRESS

Andrew E. Clarkson, arr.

Come by here
("Kumbaya" in Creole)

SATB, a cappella

Note: This arrangement was inspired by the following article: "About That Song You've Heard, Kumbaya", by John Eligon (Feb. 9, 2018, New York Times). In it, Eligon makes clear that this was first and foremost an African-American spiritual. In this regard, it was designed to be sung in the presence of the oppressor without the oppressor comprehending its true meaning. It is a call to God to "come by here" to provide love and support in the midst of horrifying struggle and torment. This bittersweetness, at the heart of most spirituals, is what I aimed to evoke, a mood that we may have lost touch with in some of our campfire singing of this song.

Traditional Spiritual, from West African Gullah Geechee

Come by here

("Kumbaya" in Creole.
It is a call to God to come help in the struggle with oppression.)

$ 2.00

Andrew E. Clarkson, arr.

Lento $\text{♩} = 38$

Soprano: $\text{G} \ \text{A} \ \text{B} \ \text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G}$

Alto: $\text{A} \ \text{B} \ \text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G} \ \text{A}$

Tenor: $\text{B} \ \text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G} \ \text{A} \ \text{B}$

Bass: $\text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G} \ \text{A} \ \text{B} \ \text{C}$

Piano/Bass: $\text{G} \ \text{A} \ \text{B} \ \text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G}$

Rehearsal mark 8: $\text{G} \ \text{A} \ \text{B} \ \text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G}$

Rehearsal mark 8: $\text{G} \ \text{A} \ \text{B} \ \text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G}$

Rehearsal mark 8: $\text{G} \ \text{A} \ \text{B} \ \text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G}$

Rehearsal mark 8: $\text{G} \ \text{A} \ \text{B} \ \text{C} \ \text{D} \ \text{E} \ \text{F} \ \text{G}$

16

Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-

Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-

Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-

Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-ya, Kum-ba-

23

ya, _____ p O Lord, Kum - - ba - ya.

ya, _____ p O Lord, Kum - - ba - ya.

ya, _____ p O Lord, Kum - - ba - ya.

ya, _____ p O Lord, Kum - - ba - ya.